

PLC Automation Drive Panels

We provide our customers with a comprehensive range of PLC and Drive Panels. These are available at very reasonable prices and are known for their superior features, like excellent performance, high efficiency, simple installation, easy maintenance and long service life. These services are delivered by our team of experts who are fully proficient in installing the panels at customer locations within precise time frame.

We are instrumental in offering a wide range of PLC Drive Control Panel to our deemed patrons. Offered range of panels is manufactured under the astute guidance of our experienced professionals. These control panels are highly regarded in the industry for giving higher output and consuming less power. Moreover, patrons can avail this range from us in variety of sizes, grades and other dimensions.

Features

- Very stable, industry tested PLC processor
- Solid, tested ladder logic (built to be a PLC first)
- Excellent ladder logic programming software
- Internal DC power supply
- Easily configured for the project
- Expandable for any size remediation project
- Large memory for basic data logging requirements
- Ethernet module available